Pulsenmore Announces First Commercial Engagement with a Leading U.S.-Based Medical Center

OMER, Israel, Feb 2, 2026 /PRNewswire/ — Pulsenmore Ltd. (NASDAQ, TASE: PLSM), a pioneer in home ultrasound technology, today announced a first commercial engagement with a medical center in the United States, following receipt of FDA approval for its home pregnancy ultrasound product.

On January 29, 2026, the Company (through its subsidiary) entered into a services agreement with the Center for Fetal Medicine & Women's Ultrasound, a fetal medicine and women's ultrasound center located in LA California (the "CFFM").

Under the agreement, CFFM will purchase Pulsenmore ES home ultrasound services, enabling patients to benefit from remote monitoring while reducing unnecessary visits to the diagnostic center.

Pulsenmore redefines prenatal care through clinically validated home ultrasound and telehealth technology, addressing one of the fastest-growing needs in global healthcare: high-quality care delivered beyond the clinic. Positioned at the intersection of digital health, telemedicine, and femtech, Pulsenmore enables remote prenatal monitoring that improves access and continuity of care and enhances patient experience.

CFFM is a prenatal diagnostic center in California that provides a wide range of specialized services and includes multidisciplinary experts in maternal-fetal medicine. The center manages approximately 1,500 pregnancies per year, operates from two locations in the Los Angeles area and specializes in obstetric care for high-risk pregnancies

"Pulsenmore's ultrasound system marks a new era in maternal-fetal care, empowering expectant mothers with safe, guided access to ultrasound imaging from home or work, while keeping clinicians closely connected throughout the entire process." said Dr. Lawrence Platt, head of CFFM.

Dr. Elazar Sonnenschein, CEO of Pulsenmore, commented: "We are pleased to announce today Pulsenmore's first commercial agreement in the United States, marking another significant step forward following our recent FDA clearance. The agreement with CFFM, a highly professional and leading medical center specializing in the management of high-risk pregnancies, represents an important milestone in the implementation of our strategic plan in the U.S. market, where we see substantial clinical and business potential.

This agreement will enable the deployment of a remote pregnancy monitoring model that places the patient and her needs at the center of care. This collaboration allows us to begin operating in a gradual and responsible manner in a market where many women face limited access to obstetric healthcare services, and to demonstrate how home-based ultrasound can become an integral part of routine medical care."

About Pulsenmore
